ESSENTIALS

ELEVATION SEARCH SOLUTIONS

That's a wrap on Q2, and it's time for another edition of Elevation Essentials! In-person meetings, conferences, and events are ramping back up, and the Elevation team is READY. We are excited to get back to The HLTH Conference in Boston this fall, and Nashville's 3686 Festival is right around the corner. The Nashville Healthcare Council and The Nashville Technology Council pulled off amazing virtual events this past year, but we are so excited to be back in action with these fantastic associations!

Elevation continues to partner with great clients, old and new, to build targeted search strategies tailored to their specific hiring needs. Never worked with a retained search partner before? We would love to share our solutions-focused approach with you! With over 150 successful placements since our founding in 2014, our search process, delivery rate, and candidate experience continue to be unmatched. We deliver elevated talent, the right way, every time. Reach out to Elevation's Vice President, Emily Martin, to learn more about our talent solutions!

EXCITING NEWS! Elevation Search Solutions is growing & actively seeking a Director of Client Engagement to join the team! Are you a driven, consultative sales executive eager to join a fast growing company specializing in executive search and organizational build outs for high-growth, emerging companies across the nation? If so, we would love to talk to you! Check out who we are and reach out to Morgan James to learn more about this opportunity.

Elevation is actively seeking a Vice President of Data & Products! Our client is delivering top quality in-home and clinic-based early intervention therapy and diagnostic evaluation services to children with Autism Spectrum Disorder across the nation. Utilizing an AI-driven platform, our client is transforming the treatment of Autism!
