We hope you have stayed healthy, safe, and happy during these last few months. We are almost through 2020 - hang in there! Our team continues to closely monitor the impact of COVID-19 on business and the talent landscape as 2020 comes to a close. We are having conversations daily with our network, candidates, VC partners, and clients to gather insights and share market intelligence. It's our mission to be aware and alert so we can better serve our clients and candidates moving into the new year!

Going in to 2021, we want to hear from YOU. We consistently want to learn, grow, and understand how to be the best partner we can be. Click here to fill out our 1 minute survey to tell us how we can provide better for you in the new year!

We believe in our ability to place the best assets on your team and to help take your business to the next level! For our candidates, we want to be your #1 advocate and resource in your search process. If you are needing a recruiting partner in 2021, we are here to help!
